

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.
In the Circuit Court of Lafayette

County, Missouri, Adjourned October term, November 27th, 1918, at Lexington.
Lafayette Reed, Plaintiff
vs.
Nora Reed, Defendant

Now at this day comes the plaintiff herein by his attorney and shows to the court that plaintiff has heretofore filed his petition, and that writ of summons was issued thereon and

Further shews to the Court that the summons issued in this cause has been returned by the Sheriff, showing that the defendant could not be found, and the Court being satisfied that the writ cannot be served on the defendant, for the reason defendant has absconded or absented herself from her usual place of abode in this State, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon her.

And it is further ordered, that a copy hereof be published, according to law, in the Lexington Intelligencer newspaper published in said county of Lafayette, designated by the plaintiff and his attorney of record, for four weeks successively, published at least once a week, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the first day of said next February Term of this court.

Mary Becarro Plaintiff
vs.
John Becarro Defendant

Now this day comes the plaintiff herein by her Attorney and files her petition and affidavit alleging among other things, that defendant John Becarro is a non-resident of the State of Missouri.

Whereupon, it is ordered by the Clerk of said court in vacation as follows: To the said defendant John Becarro, you are hereby notified that the plaintiff has commenced a suit against you in this court, the object and general nature of which is to obtain a divorce from the defendant on the ground that defendant has offered to plaintiff such indignities as to render her condition intolerable; in this that defendant in the year 1917 cursed and abused plaintiff, called her vile names, and was continually quarreling with and mistreating the plaintiff; that during the months of January and February, 1918, defendant cursed and abused plaintiff, drank to excess and would be gone for days at a time.

And that unless said John Becarro be and appear at this Court, at the next term thereof, to be begun and holden at the Court House in the City of Lexington, in said County, on the 10th day of February next, and on or before the said first day answer or plead to the petition in said cause, the same will be taken as confessed, and judgment will be rendered accordingly.

And it is further ordered, that a copy hereof be published, according to law in the Lexington Intelligencer, a newspaper published in said county of Lafayette, for four weeks successively, published at least once a week, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the first day of said next February term of this court.
